MISCELLANEOUS READING. A BRAIN AND NERVE PEOPLE.

One who appears to comprehend the Ameri can people, physically speaking, says with no little justice: "The Americans are in fact becoming nothing else but brain and nerves. Fat and fibrine are only valued as they seil in markets, and muscle is only thought of as it pertains to our draught animals. Our stimulating climate and our fast habits make us so nervous that life is becoming to us but one continued spasm. Our movements are like those of a dancing jack. Even our pastimes are so intense that they fatigue us as much as our business. The so-called rest which we begrudgingly give ourselves wears us as much as our work. We cannot bear to have another called more 'smart' than ourselves, and we will die and be buried rather than not become as rich as our neighbors. There is ever the same unsatisfied restlessness. whether we go abroad or stay at home. No body shall travel faster or see a given number of objects in a less number of hours than ourselves, no matter at what cost of money or health. There is no impossible Alps that we will not climb, and no deep cave of earth or sea that we will not explore. There are none who shall not grow numb before ourselves on the highest frozen peak, and there shall be none who can hold their breath longer under water. When the guide is not looking there is no King's throne or Pope's chair on which we will not sit. There is nothing within the scope of human ability which we will not una longer bow." USEFUL HINTS TO YOUNG MEN.

dertake, and when we boast of what we have accomplished there are none who shall draw

How many young men ignorantly deny themselves a fortune. There is scarcely a young man of good sense in this city who cannot save $100 easily from his annual earnings. and, if he will forego cigars, billiards and juleps, he can save double that amount. Figures sometimes produce almost incredible results. Thus, for instance, if a young man upon his twentieth birthday, will invest $100 in any stock paying ten per cent., and annually hereafter will invest the same amount and the accumulation of interest, he will be worth, when he is thirty years old, $1,753; when for-ty years old, $6,300; when fifty years old, $18,150; when sixty years old, $48,700.

How simple then is the plan by which a youth of the present day can pass his old age in comfort and luxury. He has only to regulate his expenses so as to save one hundred dollars each year from his income. If the amount saved be larger, then the sum total will be increased in the same proportion. Only think of it, that, $500 saved annually rdered, on receipt of which they will be forwarded and invested in ten per cent stock will amount v first mail. Purchasers can have tickets ending in forty years to $243,500. One million invested in the same way for ten years will amount to $2,598,600; in twenty years to $6, 726,800; in thirty years to $17,374,628; in forty years to $45,250,338. No wonder, then, that the Rothschilds have amassed such boundless wealth.—Balt. Amer.

> "A Company of performers on "ox horns," is now travelling and giving concerts in Ohio. Their "horns" are now seventy in number."

That reminds one of those good old times when Joshua with his troupe of ram's horn performers, held concerts under the walls of lars, and upwards, can be sent to us at OUR RISK Jericho. We wonder if the effect is as stunning, and if they "bring down the house" like Joshua did the stone walls. We have an ear for music. We have music in our soul. We have, we believe, the phrenological bump for music. But we confess thatour soul is "dark as Erebus," and that we are not to be "trusted" when it comes to ox horn concerts .-
